Providing Solutions

A large number of Americans find it difficult to make their monthly mortgage payment and some are struggling to pay their other debts as well. Many do not know where to get help through these trying times. Halo Benefits, Inc. is here to assist your members and / or employees with their financial hardships, and put them on the path to financial relief.

HaloCare can help.

HaloCare, a product of Halo Benefits, provides a comprehensive solution to address most common financial challenges. Recent reports indicate bankruptcy, home foreclosures, credit card debt, identity theft, and credit report inaccuracies are at their highest points in over 50 years. HaloCare can help address these problems.

Halo Benefits offers financial services to individuals through associations, insurance companies, and employee benefit services groups. Through the power of the HaloCare initiative, Halo Benefits provides unparalleled financial assistance for the American consumer.

"HaloCare has added immeasurable value to our member benefit package. It's been a real success for us." Amacore Group
